

2009 Milwaukee County 4-H Junior Fair
Held during the Waukesha County Fair
JUDGING SCHEDULE

Monday, July 13

Junior Fair Entries Accepted & Face to Face Judging

At Waukesha's 4-H Forum 1:00-7:00 p.m.

All Classes in Department 218

Cultural Arts, fine arts, music, drama, clowning, dance, puppetry, arts and crafts, leather craft, ceramics and a number of other arts, cake decorating, collections, block printing, etc. – check the fair book pages 86-98.

All Classes in Department 217

The Cloverbuds' Class is only open to exhibitors in K5, 1st, or 2nd grade. Cloverbud exhibits can be the result of the child's work with the help of a parent or other adult.

Dept. 330, Class C, Self-Determined Arts and Crafts will also be judged on Monday, All other Self-determined classes will be judged on Tuesday.

Tuesday, July 14

Junior Fair Entries Accepted 1:00-7:00 p.m. Junior Face to Face Judging

At Waukesha's 4-H Forum 1:00-7:00 p.m.

VERY IMPORTANT, Check the fair book, to make sure you come on the right day and that you have the right Department number and class on your Milwaukee County Junior Fair Entry Form.

Foods, Food Preservation,
Photography, Clothing, Knitting &
Crocheting, Child Development,
Home Environment
Youth Leadership, Health & Social Sciences, Mechanical Projects,
Electricity, Woodworking,
Models, Natural Science, Animal
& Vet Sciences
Plant & Soil Science
Flowers & Plant

For those enrolled in Exploring in Milwaukee County open to 3rd through 5th grade, enter your fair entries in: Department 330 (Any appropriate Class, based on project emphasized, use your best guess).